Rhetoric in Haiku

Dr. Susumu Kubo, Matsuyama University

It is common knowledge that a haiku poem with 5-7-5 syllabic structure makes good use of rhetoric including simile, metaphor, personification, allegory, synecdoche, metonymy, allusion and the like. This talk demonstrates how haiku poets intentionally or unintentionally use or exploit rhetoric in their haiku to express what they experience in the real world whenever they believe that literal compositions of haiku without rhetoric are inadequate. The mechanism of poetic acts of rhetoric will be explained with foregrounding and backgrounding in the theory of Regulation Augmented Speech Act Theory. This talk will help you understand how Japanese students verbalize the world around them in your teaching in Japan.

Date/time: Sunday, Oct. 17, 2021 14:15—16:20

Venue: M215 Aidai Muse Bldg., Ehime University
Johoku campus
