Teaching Fluency using the Verbal Classrooms method.

José Domingo Cruz

All teachers want their students to achieve higher levels of fluency, but how to teach it, and which classroom methods actually work? The presenter has been teaching fluency-based speaking classes for over 20 years and will share his methods and theories to get students to speak faster and to say more. In addition to a basic description of the essentials of his teaching techniques, he will demonstrate some classroom activities from the basic Answer-Question pattern to, One Idea, One Breath, which is aimed at fluency improvement, and others such as Timed Speeches and Disagreements. Time permitting, there will also be an introduction to his Authentic Listening/Fluency practice website GOLDFish365-<http://goldfish365.com/>.

Date/Time: March 20 (Sun.) 14:00-16:00

Place: Zoom registration details will be announced later.
