

EXHIBITIONS and MUSEUMS, April 2022

EHIME PREFECTURAL ART MUSEUM

tel:089-932-0010

9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

Closed: April 5, 11, 18, 25 May 6(“Great Sword” Opens), 9, 16, 23

Shin-Kan at Horinouchi

Due to the spread of corona virus, exhibition schedule is changeable.
Please check before you visit.

Special Exhibition

< April 2-May 29> Moomin Comics Exhibition

Tove Jansson (1914-2001) was a Swedish-speaking Finnish author, novelist, painter, illustrator and comic strip artist.

She is most famous as the creator of The Moomins, a family of white, round fairy tale creatures with large snouts that make them resemble the hippopotamus they are central characters in a series of books and a comic strip. For this exhibition, 280 sketches and original drawings from her comic strip are shown in Japan for the first time.

| Admission Ticket               | Adults         | Seniors(65 years or older) | High School &Collage students | Junior High & ElementarySchool Students |
|--------------------------------|----------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|
| Day Ticket(Advance Ticket) | ¥1200 (¥1000) | ¥1000                          | ¥800 (¥600)                      | ¥600 (*¥400)                                |

* “Moomin Comics” pair ticket/ ¥1800 (advance purchase only)

<April 16-June 12> Great Sword Exhibition

These swords are drawn from the collections of the Sano Museum. Swords and sword fittings are on displayed, among them national treasures and important cultural assets.

| Admission Ticket               | Adults         | Seniors(65 years or older) | High School &Collage students | Junior High & ElementarySchool Students |
|--------------------------------|----------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|
| Day Ticket(Advance Ticket) | ¥1300 (¥1100) | ¥1200                          | ¥900 (¥700)                      | ¥400 (*¥200)                                |

Museum Collection Exhibition

| Admission            | Adults       | College & High School Students |
|----------------------|--------------|--------------------------------|
| Group Ticket(Group) | ¥330 (¥260) | ¥220 (*¥170)                   |

*Museum Collection Exhibition: Seniors (65 and over) are free.

Junior high & elementary school students and under are free.

*Disabled persons and their attendants are admitted free.

*With a purchase of the special Exhibition ticket, admission to the Museum Collection Exhibition is free.

*Groups (20 and more) can get advance tickets anytime.

Minami-Kan 9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

*Ask for the details. @https://www.ehime-art.jp/

BANSUI-SO

tel:089-921-3711

Bansui-So is a French Neo-Renaissance building built in 1922 as the villa of the Duke Hisamatsu Sadakoto, a descendant of the feudal lord of Matsuyama. It was designated as national important cultural property in 2011. Various events take place on the 1st floor. The luxurious interior decor of the 2nd floor can be viewed for ¥300 (adult). Bansui-so is behind the Courthouse, a 5-minute walk from the Okaido tram station.

9:00-18:00 Closed: April 4, 11, 18, 25, May 9, 16, 23, 30

< - > "Sorokin no mita sakura"

Location photos from this film based on the love between a Russian POW and a Japanese nurse.

Adults ¥300, High, Junior-high and elementary school students ¥100.

Disabled persons and their attendants ¥100

< April 12-16 > Nakai Toshiaki Exhibition/ Free

*Opening day starts at 12:00. Closing day ends at 15:00

<http://www.bansuisou.org/>

MIURART VILLAGE

tel:089- 978-6838

This museum holds various kinds of art exhibits. The permanent collection includes a number of Miurart pieces (porcelain panel painting) as well as contemporary sculptures in the garden gallery. About a 15-minute walk from Uchimiya Iyotetsu bus stop or a 20-minute walk from JR Horie station

Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

< May 8 > Craftwork by Artists from Ehime

Featured in this show are dyeing and weaving, earthenware and metalware, bamboo craft and dolls.

MITSUKOSHI

tel:089-934-8123

4th Floor ART GALLERY 10:00-19:00 Wednesdays

(-16: 00 on the last day of exhibition) Admission: Free

<-April 4> Masterpieces of Japanese Painting

<April 5-11> Igaware by Tanimoto Yoh: The 40th Anniversary of Pottery

~ Pottery that seems to exist between manipulated and untouched states. ~

<April 12-18> Meissen and European Antiques (tea cups, pots, plates and dolls)

Originally from Germany, Meissen has a history spanning more than 300 years.

Meissen ceramics are notable for both their thinness and durability while retaining a distinctive elegance.

<April 19-25> Western-style Paintings by Ben Ohga ~ Starry Town ~

IYOTETSU TAKASHIMAYA

tel:089-948-2111

10:00-19:00 (-18:00 on Feb. 17)

Restaurants (11:00-21:00, 22:00) Please check the latest information.

Santasanta Café Dining 3Floor (10:00-22:00)

Ferris wheel (10:00-21:00)

6th Floor ART GALLERY

Admission: Free (-16:00 on the last day of exhibition)

<-April 5> Japanese and Western-style Paintings by Modern Artists

< April 6-12> Modern Kutaniware

Kutani porcelain is one of the representative porcelains of Japan and features vivid beautiful patterns.

<April 13-19> Masterpieces of Japanese and Western-style Painting by Popular Artists

<April 20-26> Japanese Paintings by Ueda Kazuho ~Remind the Flowers ~

<April 27-May 3> Small-sized Works

8th Floor SKY DOME

Please check the latest information. <https://www.iyotetsu-takashimaya.co.jp/>

THE SHIKI MUSEUM

tel:089-931-5566

Masaoka Shiki (1867-1902) is the father of modern haiku. Here, his lifework and the development of modern Japanese literature are examined. Displays also trace the history of Ehime and Matsuyama from ancient times to the 19th century. On the 3rd floor, there is a replica of "Gudabutsuan", the house where Shiki and his friend Natsume Soseki, a famous novelist, lived for a time. Located in the northern part of Dogo Park, a 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen Station or Dogo Koen tram station.

9:00 -17:00(admission until 16:30) Closed:Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥400 Student(up to high school) Free

*Volunteer English guides available on requests. Call the museum at least 2 days in advance.

*Rental fee for English, Korean or Chinese audio guide is ¥100.

<http://www.sikihaku.lesp.co.jp/information/english/>

SEKI ART GALLERY

tel:089-946-5678

This gallery focuses on Japanese masters of the 20th century including works of the "Nihonga" painters Yokoyama Taikan, Maeda Seison and Kayama Matazo. Also on display are oil paintings by Koiso Ryohei, Léonard Foujita and others. The Rodin Room features sculptures and copperplate prints by François-Auguste-Réne Rodin. As you enter the museum, a member of staff will play an antique disk music box. A 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

10:00 - 17:00

Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥700, Sr. High, Jr. High & Primary Sch. Students ¥500

<https://www.seki.co.jp/mus/>

SAKA-NO-UE-NO KUMO MUSEUM

tel:089-915-2600

This museum was built to commemorate the novel Saka no ue no kumo (The Clouds on the Hill), written by Shiba Ryotaro. The story takes place during the Meiji era (1868-1912), focusing on three ambitious natives of Matsuyama, brothers Saneyuki and Yoshifuru Akiyama and their friend Masaoka Shiki. A special exhibition explores the Meiji era, transition of Japan to a modern state, focusing on Akiyama Saneyuki. The museum's triangular architecture was designed by Ando Tadao, one of Japan's most famous architects. A 3- minute walk from Okaido tram station.

9:00 -18:30 (admission until 18:00)

Closed: Mondays Open: Everyday Dec. 20-Jan. 17

Admission: Adults ¥400 (*¥320) *Group discount for more than 20 people
Jr. High Sch. Students & Seniors (over 65) ¥200 (*¥160)

* Rental fee for an audio guide is ¥100. (English, Chinese, Korean, Japanese)

<http://www.http://www.sakanouenokumomuseum.jp/>

DOGO GIYAMAN GLASS MUSEUM

tel: 089-933-3637

Once glassware was called "Giyaman" from the Portuguese word diamante (diamond) which was used to cut glass. This museum focuses on antique glassware made by Japanese craftsmen. It is located in the Yamanote Garden Place, a 7-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

9:00-22:00(admission closes at 21:30)

Closed: Every Wednesday

| Admission | Adults *Groupdiscount(15 and over) | Seniors(65 and over with ID) | Jr.High Sch.Stu. |
|-----------|--|------------------------------|------------------|
| (yen)     | ¥650 (*¥550)                           | ¥550                         | ¥450             |

Museum shop and cafe annex.

<http://www.dogo-yamanote.com/gardenplace/museum/index.html>

JUNKDO BOOKSTORE

tel:089-915-0075

10:00-19:00

Open: Everyday

* Looking for books, refer to the following site,

http://honto.jp/store/detail\_1570054\_14HB320.html