

EXHIBITIONS and MUSEUMS, June 2022

EHIME PREFECTURAL ART MUSEUM

tel:089-932-0010

9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

Closed: June 7, 13, 20, 27, July 5, 11, 19, 25

Shin-Kan at Horinouchi

Due to the spread of corona virus, exhibition schedule is changeable.
Please check before you visit.

Special Exhibition

<-June 12> Great Sword Exhibition

These swords are drawn from the collections of the Sano Museum. Swords and sword fittings are on displayed, among them national treasures and important cultural assets.

Admission Ticket	Adults	Seniors (65 years or older)	High School & Collage students	Junior High & Elementary School Students
Day Ticket (Advance Ticket)	¥1300 (¥1100)	¥1200	¥900 (¥700)	¥400 (¥200)

<July 16 – Sept. 4> Tyrannosaurus~ Mystery of Evolution

This exhibition features the world's most famous carnivorous dinosaur, Tyrannosaurus. A restoration of the complete skeleton of the dinosaur is displayed along with animated dinosaur robots. Learn the mystery of its beginnings and evolution.

Admission Ticket	Adults	Seniors (65 years or older)	High School & Collage students	Junior High & Elementary School Students
Day Ticket (Advance Ticket)	¥1400 (¥1200)	-----	¥1400 (collage students) ¥1200 (college students)	¥1000 ¥800

* Tyrannosaurus: Tickets for three years or older are ¥500 (advance ticket ¥300).

•Museum Collection Exhibition

< -June 12> Collection VI ~ Imaged Sword

<June 14-Sept. 11> Collection I ~ Art Forest Project

<June 14-Sept. 11> Collection Highlight I

Admission	Adults	College & High School Students
Group Ticket(Group)	¥330 (¥260)	¥220 (*¥170)

*Museum Collection Exhibition: Seniors (65 and over) are free.

Junior high & elementary school students and under are free.

*Disabled persons and their attendants are admitted free.

*With a purchase of the special Exhibition ticket, admission to the Museum Collection Exhibition is free.

*Groups (20 and more) can get advance tickets anytime.

Minami-Kan 9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

*Ask for the details. @<https://www.chime-art.jp/>

BANSUI-SO

tel:089-921-3711

Bansui-So is a French Neo-Renaissance building built in 1922 as the villa of the Duke Hisamatsu Sadakoto, a descendant of the feudal lord of Matsuyama. It was designated as national important cultural property in 2011. Various events take place on the 1st floor. The luxurious interior decor of the 2nd floor can be viewed for ¥300 (adult). Bansui-so is behind the Courthouse, a 5-minute walk from the Okaido tram station.

9:00-18:00 Closed: May 9, 16, 23, 30, June 6, 13, 20, 27

< - > "Sorokin no mita sakura"

Location photos from this film based on the love between a Russian POW and a Japanese nurse.

Adults ¥300, High, Junior-high and elementary school students ¥100.

Disabled persons and their attendants ¥100

<June 8-12> Indian ink Paintings by Hana no Kai/ Free

*Opening day starts at 10:00, closes at 17:00. Closing day ends at 15:00

<June 18, 11:30~, 14:00~ > Concert with Song & Piano

Advance tickets ¥2000 (¥1500 High school students or younger),

Day tickets ¥2500 (¥2000 High school students or younger)

<July 2, 14:00> Classical Guitar Concert by "Rokugen-no-Kai" / Free

<July 9, 11:30~, 14:30~ > A La Carte Concert Series Vol. 1 & 2

Advance tickets ¥2000 (¥1500 High school students or younger),

Day tickets ¥2500 (¥2000 High school students or younger)

<http://www.bansuisou.org/>

MIURART VILLAGE

tel:089- 978-6838

This museum holds various kinds of art exhibits. The permanent collection includes a number of Miurart pieces (porcelain panel painting) as well as contemporary sculptures in the garden gallery. About a 15-minute walk from Uchimiya Iyotetsu bus stop or a 20-minute walk from JR Horie station

Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

<-Aug. 7> Watercolor Painting ~ Light and Flowers ~

<http://www.miuraz.co.jp/miurart>

MITSUKOSHI

tel:089-934-8123 Open: Everyday

4th Floor ART GALLERY 10:00-19:00 (-16:00 on the last day of exhibition)

Admission: Free

<-June 6> Oil Paintings by Mitani Yuji ~ Thanks to Our Earth ~

Mitani is sometimes referred to as a "Painter of the Sun" because his primary motif is the sun, lively and powerful images, often depicted with beautiful scenery.

<June 7-12> Venetian Glass by Ueki Hiroko

<June 13-27> Dai-Tankei Inkstone Exhibit

Tankei-inkstones are famous for their durability and are said to last for a hundred years.

Made of a rare stone which comes from China, tankei-inkstones are treasured by calligraphers for the clear and beautiful ink they produce.

<June 28-July 4> Realist Paintings from The Hoki Art Museum

IYOTETSU TAKASHIMAYA

tel:089-948-2111

10:00-19:00 (-18:00 on Feb. 17)

Restaurants (11:00-21:00, 22:00) Please check the latest information.

Santasanta Café Dining 3Floor (10:00-22:00) Ferris wheel (10:00-21:00)

6th Floor ART GALLERY

Admission: Free (-16:00 on the last day of exhibition)

<June 1-7> Ceramic Works by Nishimura Yoshihiro

<June 8-14> Classical Japanese Paintings

<June 15-21> Japanese Paintings by Holii Shusui

<June 22-28> Modern Gems, Japanese and Western-style Paintings

<June 29-July 5> Paintings by Sakurai Shinya

8th Floor SKY DOME

Please check the latest information. <https://www.iyotetsu-takashimaya.co.jp/>

THE SHIKI MUSEUM

tel:089-931-5566

Masaoka Shiki (1867-1902) is the father of modern haiku. Here, his lifework and the development of modern Japanese literature are examined. Displays also trace the history of Ehime and Matsuyama from ancient times to the 19th century. On the 3rd floor, there is a replica of "Gudabutsuan", the house where Shiki and his friend Natsume Soseki, a famous novelist, lived for a time. Located in the northern part of Dogo Park, a 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen Station or Dogo Koen tram station.

9:00 -17:00(admission until 16:30) Closed:Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥400 Student (up to high school) Free

*Volunteer English guides available on requests. Call the museum at least 2 days in advance.

*Rental fee for English, Korean or Chinese audio guide is ¥100.

<http://www.sikihaku.lesp.co.jp/information/english/>

SEKI ART GALLERY

tel:089-946-5678

This gallery focuses on Japanese masters of the 20th century including works of the "Nihonga" painters Yokoyama Taikan, Maeda Seison and Kayama Matazo. Also on display are oil paintings by Koiso Ryohei, Léonard Foujita and others. The Rodin Room features sculptures and copperplate prints by François-Auguste-Réne Rodin. As you enter the museum, a member of staff will play an antique disk music box. A 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

10:00 - 17:00

Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥700, Sr. High, Jr. High & Primary Sch. Students ¥500

<https://www.seki.co.jp/mus/>

SAKA-NO-UE-NO KUMO MUSEUM

tel:089-915-2600

This museum was built to commemorate the novel Saka no ue no kumo (The Clouds on the Hill), written by Shiba Ryotaro. The story takes place during the Meiji era (1868-1912), focusing on three ambitious natives of Matsuyama, brothers Saneyuki and Yoshifuru Akiyama and their friend Masaoka Shiki. A special exhibition explores the Meiji era, transition of Japan to a modern state, focusing on Akiyama Saneyuki. The museum's triangular architecture was designed by Ando Tadao, one of Japan's most famous architects. A 3- minute walk from Okaido tram station.

9:00 -18:30 (admission until 18:00) Closed: Mondays

Admission: Adults ¥400 (*¥320) *Group discount for more than 20 people
Jr. High Sch. Students & Seniors (over 65) ¥200 (*¥160)

* Rental fee for an audio guide is ¥100. (English, Chinese, Korean, Japanese)

<http://www.http://www.sakanouenokumomuseum.jp/>

DOGO GIYAMAN GLASS MUSEUM

tel: 089-933-3637

Once glassware was called "Giyaman" from the Portuguese word diamante (diamond) which was used to cut glass. This museum focuses on antique glassware made by Japanese craftsmen. It is located in the Yamanote Garden Place, a 7-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

9:00-22:00(admission closes at 21:30)

Closed: Every Wednesday

Admission	Adults *Group discount(15 and over)	Seniors(65 and over with ID)	Jr.High Sch.Stu.
(yen)	¥650 (*¥550)	¥550	¥450

Museum shop and cafe annex.

<http://www.dogo-yamanote.com/gardenplace/museum/index.html>