

EXHIBITIONS and MUSEUMS, October 2022

EHIME PREFECTURAL ART MUSEUM

tel:089-932-0010

9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30) Closed: Oct. 4, 11, 17, 24, 31, Nov. 8, 14, 21, 28

Shin-Kan at Horinouchi

Due to the spread of corona virus, exhibition schedule is changeable.
Please check before you visit.

Special Exhibition

<Oct. 1 - Nov. 20> Mount Koya Kongobu Temple Exhibition

~ Commemorating the 1250th Anniversary of the Birth of Kobo Daishi, Kukai
Mount Koya is the birthplace of the Shingon Sect, founded by Kukai who traveled to Tang China to acquire esoteric Buddhist teachings. Priceless Buddhist treasures preserved over the ages will be on display.

Admission Ticket	Adults	Seniors (65 years or older)	High School & Collage students	Junior High & Elementary School Students
Day Ticket (Advance Ticket)	¥1500 (¥1300)	¥1400	¥900 (¥700)	¥700 (¥500)

•Museum Collection Exhibition

< -mid Nov.> Collection II

<Nov, 22-Jan. 29> Collection III

Admission	Adults	College & High School Students
Group Ticket(Group)	¥330 (¥260)	¥220 (*¥170)

*Museum Collection Exhibition: Seniors (65 and over) are free.

Junior high & elementary school students and under are free.

*Disabled persons and their attendants are admitted free.

*With a purchase of the special Exhibition ticket, admission to the Museum Collection Exhibition is free.

*Groups (20 and more) can get advance tickets anytime.

Minami-Kan

9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

*Ask for the details. @https://www.ehime-art.jp/

BANSUI-SO

tel:089-921-3711

Bansui-So is a French Neo-Renaissance building built in 1922 as the villa of the Duke Hisamatsu Sadakoto, a descendant of the feudal lord of Matsuyama. It was designated as national important cultural property in 2011. Various events take place on the 1st floor. The luxurious interior decor of the 2nd floor can be viewed for ¥300 (adult). Bansui-so is behind the Courthouse, a 5-minute walk from the Okaido tram station.

9:00-18:00 Closed: Oct. 3, 17, 24, 31, Nov. 28

< - > "Sorokin no mita sakura"

Location photos from this film based on the love between a Russian POW and a Japanese nurse.

Adults ¥300, High, Junior-high and elementary school students ¥100.

Disabled persons and their attendants ¥100

< -Oct. 2> Shiki Suibokuga Exhibition / Free

*Opening day starts at 13:00. Closing day ends at 16:00.

<Nov. 17, 14:30> Baroque Concert / ¥4000

<http://www.bansuisou.org/>

MIURART VILLAGE

tel:089- 978-6838

This museum holds various kinds of art exhibits. The permanent collection includes a number of Miurart pieces (porcelain panel painting) as well as contemporary sculptures in the garden gallery. About a 15-minute walk from Uchimiya Iyotetsu bus stop or a 20-minute walk from JR Horie station

Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

<-Oct. 30> Miura Tamotsu and his wife Akiko Art Collection Exhibit

~ Again from Heaven ~

<https://www.miuraz.co.jp/miurart/>

MITSUKOSHI

<tel:089-934-8123> Open:Everyday

4th Floor ART GALLERY 10:00-19:00 (-16: 00 on the last day of exhibition)

Admission: Free

<-Oct. 3> Glass Works in the Art Nouveau (late 19th-early20th century) and Art Deco (1910-1930) styles.

<Oct. 4-10> Paintings Selected by Mitsukoshi Department Store

<Oct. 11-17> Oil Paintings by Yamashita Toru

<Oct. 18-24> Pottery by 15th Sakaida Kakiemon ~Special Selection ~

<Oct. 25-31> Masterpieces of Japanese and Western-style Paintings

IYOTETSU TAKASHIMAYA

tel:089-948-2111

10:00-19:00 (-18:00 on Feb. 17)

Restaurants (11:00-21:00, 22:00) Please check the latest information.

Santasanta Café Dining 3Floor (10:00-22:00) Ferris wheel (10:00-21:00)

6th Floor ART GALLERY

<-Oct. 4> Paintings by Irina Fetman and Diane Mone

<Oct. 5-11> Oil Paintings by Araki Junichi

<Oct. 12-18> Ceramics by Kono Genyo : Climbing Kiln and Gas Kiln Compared

<Oct. 19-25> Ceramic Works by Kono Genyo : Vase, Hanging Vase and Large Pot

<Oct. 26-Nov. 1> Modern Craftwork Gem Collection

6th, 7th Floor EVENT HALL Admission: Free (17:00 on the last day of exhibition)

<Oct. 5-31> Iyotetsu Takashimaya 20th Anniversary
Hokkaido Products and Exhibits Highlighting Tourist Attractions
(-18:00 on Oct.18, -17:00 on Oct.31)

8th Floor SKY DOME

<Oct. 5-31> Iyotetsu Takashimaya 20th Anniversary
Hokkaido Products and Exhibits Highlighting Tourist Attractions
(-17:00 on Oct.31)

<https://www.iyotetsu-takashimaya.co.jp/>

THE SHIKI MUSEUM

tel:089-931-5566

Masaoka Shiki (1867-1902) is the father of modern haiku. Here, his lifework and the development of modern Japanese literature are examined. Displays also trace the history of Ehime and Matsuyama from ancient times to the 19th century. On the 3rd floor, there is a replica of "Gudabutsuan", the house where Shiki and his friend Natsume Soseki, a famous novelist, lived for a time. Located in the northern part of Dogo Park, a 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen Station or Dogo Koen tram station.

9:00 -17:00(admission until 16:30) Closed:Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥400 Student (up to high school) Free

*Volunteer English guides available on requests. Call the museum at least 2 days in advance.

*Rental fee for English, Korean or Chinese audio guide is ¥100.

<http://www.sikihaku.lesp.co.jp/information/english/>

SEKI ART GALLERY

tel:089-946-5678

This gallery focuses on Japanese masters of the 20th century including works of the "Nihonga" painters Yokoyama Taikan, Maeda Seison and Kayama Matazo. Also on display are oil paintings by Koiso Ryohei, Léonard Foujita and others. The Rodin Room features sculptures and copperplate prints by François-Auguste-Réne Rodin. As you enter the museum, a member of staff will play an antique disk music box. A 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

10:00 - 17:00 Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥700, Sr. High, Jr. High & Primary Sch. Students ¥500

<https://www.seki.co.jp/mus/>

SAKA-NO-UE-NO KUMO MUSEUM

tel:089-915-2600

This museum was built to commemorate the novel Saka no ue no kumo (The Clouds on the Hill), written by Shiba Ryotaro. The story takes place during the Meiji era (1868-1912), focusing on three ambitious natives of Matsuyama, brothers Saneyuki and Yoshifuru Akiyama and their friend Masaoka Shiki. A special exhibition explores the Meiji era, transition of Japan to a modern state, focusing on Akiyama Saneyuki. The museum's triangular architecture was designed by Ando Tadao, one of Japan's most famous architects. A 3- minute walk from Okaido tram station.

9:00 -18:30 (admission until 18:00) Closed: Mondays

Admission: Adults ¥400 (*¥320) *Group discount for more than 20 people
Jr. High Sch. Students & Seniors (over 65) ¥200 (*¥160)

* Rental fee for an audio guide is ¥100. (English, Chinese, Korean, Japanese)

<http://www.http://www.sakanouenokumomuseum.jp/>

DOGO GIYAMAN GLASS MUSEUM

tel: 089-933-3637

Once glassware was called "Giyaman" from the Portuguese word diamante (diamond) which was used to cut glass. This museum focuses on antique glassware made by Japanese craftsmen. It is located in the Yamanote Garden Place, a 7-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

9:00-22:00(admission closes at 21:30)

Closed: Every Wednesday

Admission: Adults ¥650 (¥550*) *Group discount (15 and over)

Seniors (65 and over with ID) ¥550 Junior High School Students ¥450

Museum Shop and Café Annex.

<http://www.dogo-yamanote.com/gardenplace/>