Japan Association of Language Teachers (JALT)

Getting Published in JALT Publications and Beyond
Melodie Cook, University of Niigata Prefecture

There is no simple formula to getting published, but in this presentation, Melodie will give you some actionable advice for getting your research published in JALT. She will explain the differences between JALT's three main publications (The Language Teacher, JALT Journal, and The Post-conference Proceedings) and give hints and tips for things that writers should and should not do to improve their chances of getting a manuscript accepted. She will also provide general information about publishing as well as introduce other publisher recommendations.
