

EXHIBITIONS and MUSEUMS, November 2024

EHIME PREFECTURAL ART MUSEUM

tel:089-932-0010

9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30) Closed: Nov. 5, 11, 18, 25,
Dec. 3, 9, 16, 23, 29

Shin-Kan at Horinouchi

Due to the spread of corona virus, exhibition schedule is changeable.
Please check before you visit.

Special Exhibition

< – Nov. 17> Banksy & Street Art (R)Evolution

Banksy is well-known for their active satirical graffiti movements. They started their activity in New York in 1970s behind the background of the time; poverty, social uncertainty and deterioration of public safety. In this exhibition, not only the Banksy's works, but trailblazers of graffiti art and other street artists from Europe and Japan are displayed. Total 90 pieces are shown.

Admission Ticket	Adults	Seniors (65 years or older)	High School & Collage students	Junior High & Elementary School Students
Day Ticket (Advance Ticket)	¥1800 (¥1600)	-----	¥1500 (¥1300)	¥1000 (¥800)

< – Nov. 4> Dogo Onsen Story ~ Its History and Culture

Dogo Onsen is the oldest hot spring in Japan with a history of 3000 years. Dogo Onsen Honkan, the main bathhouse was built in 1894. Its renovation was recently completed. To commemorate the Honkan's reopening, this exhibition explores Dogo Onsen's long history and its unique onsen culture.

Admission Ticket	Adults	Seniors (65 years or older)		High School & Collage stude
Day Ticket (Advance Ticket)	¥1000 (¥800)	¥900 (¥700)		¥600 (¥400)

•Museum Collection Exhibition

<- Nov. 10 > Collection III ~ Takahashi Shuso (1900-64)

Admission	Adults	College & High School Students
Group Ticket(Group)	¥330 (¥260)	¥220 (*¥170)

"Museum Collection": Seniors (65 or older), Junior high, elementary school students or younger are free.

* Disabled persons and their attendants are admitted free.

* With a purchase of the special Exhibition ticket, admission to the Museum Collection Exhibition is free.

*Groups (20 and more) can get advance tickets anytime.

Minami-Kan 9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

*Ask for the details. @https://www.ehime-art.jp/

BANSUI-SO

tel:089-921-3711

Bansui-So is a French Neo-Renaissance building built in 1922 as the villa of the Duke Hisamatsu Sadakoto, a descendant of the feudal lord of Matsuyama. It was designated as national important cultural property in 2011. Various events take place on the 1st floor. The luxurious interior decor of the 2nd floor can be viewed for ¥300 (adult). Bansui-so is behind the Courthouse, a 5-minute walk from the Okaido tram station.

9:00-18:00

Closed: Nov. 11, 18, 25, Dec. 2, 9, 16, 23

<-> “Sorokin no mita sakura”

Location photos from this film based on the love between a Russian POW and a Japanese nurse. Adults ¥300, High, Junior-high and elementary school students ¥100. Disabled persons and their attendants ¥100

<Nov. 5-10> Ekubo Club Exhibition/ Free

*Opening day starts at 11:00. Closing day ends at 15:00

<Nov. 12-17> Atelier. R Calligraphy Exhibition/ Free

*Opening day starts at 1300. Closing day ends at 1500

MIURART VILLAGE

tel:089- 978-6838

This museum holds various kinds of art exhibits. The permanent collection includes a number of Miurart pieces (porcelain panel painting) as well as contemporary sculptures in the garden gallery. About a 15-minute walk from Uchimiya Iyotetsu bus stop or a 20-minute walk from JR Horie station

Open: Mondays and Tuesdays

< – Nov. 3> Woodblock Prints by Sugiura Hisui

One hundred woodblock prints spanning a century on display.
Hisui observed, drew and loved flowers and plants.

<Nov. 17-Jan. 26, 2025> Works from Miurart Collection XIII

<https://www.miuraz.co.jp/miurart/>

MITSUKOSHI

<tel:089-934-8123>

10:00-19:00

Open : Every day

4th Floor ART GALLERY (-16:00 on the last day of exhibition) Admission: Free

<-Nov. 4> Oil Paintings by Tanaka Zenmei ~Let's enjoy the Twilight of Life~

Zenmei's motifs are drawn from the people he sees on the streets of Paris. His subjects, situated in the parks, cafes and pubs of the City of Light, are depicted with sympathy and humor.

<Nov. 5-11> Woodblock Prints by Takehisa Yumeji (1884-1934)

Yumeji was a painter, designer and poet. His Bijinga paintings are famous for the beautiful, big-eyed, melancholic women they portray.

<Nov. 12-25> Glass Works : Satsuma Kiriko

~Gem Collection revived with Fire and Skill~

<Nov. 26-Dec. 2> Lacquerware by Kodama Koji:

Wood and Japanese Lacquer Exhibition

IYOTETSU TAKASHIMAYA

tel:089-948-2111

10:00-19:00 (-18:00 on Feb. 17)

Restaurants (11:00-21:00, 22:00) Please check the latest information.

Santo Santo Café Dining 3Floor (10:00-22:00)

<Nov. 12> Modern Art by Young Artists

<Nov. 13-19> Best Selection of Japanese and Western-style Paintings

<Nov. 20-26> Woodblock Prints by Senju Hiroshi

Hiroshi is a contemporary Japanese painter best known for his large-scale monochromatic depictions of waterfalls. His works are informed by the tradition of Japanese landscape paintings.

<Nov. 27-Dec. 3> Oil Paintings and Woodblock Prints

by Jean Pierre Cassigneul

<https://www.iyotetsu-takashimaya.co.jp/>

THE SHIKI MUSEUM

tel:089-931-5566

Masaoka Shiki (1867-1902) is the father of modern haiku. Here, his lifework and the development of modern Japanese literature are examined. Displays also trace the history of Ehime and Matsuyama from ancient times to the 19th century. On the 3rd floor, there is a replica of "Gudabutsuan", the house where Shiki and his friend Natsume Soseki, a famous novelist, lived for a time. Located in the northern part of Dogo Park, a 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen Station or Dogo Koen tram station.

9:00 -17:00(admission until 16:30) Closed:Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥400 Student (up to high school) Free

*Volunteer English guides available on requests. Call the museum at least 2 days in advance.

*Rental fee for English, Korean or Chinese audio guide is ¥100.

<http://www.sikihaku.lesp.co.jp/information/english/>

SEKI ART GALLERY

tel:089-946-5678

This gallery focuses on Japanese masters of the 20th century including works of the "Nihonga" painters Yokoyama Taikan, Maeda Seison and Kayama Matazo. Also on display are oil paintings by Koiso Ryohei, Léonard Foujita and others. The Rodin Room features sculptures and copperplate prints by François-Auguste-Réne Rodin. As you enter the museum, a member of staff will play an antique disk music box. A 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

10:00 - 17:00

Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥700, Sr. High, Jr. High & Primary Sch. Students ¥500

<https://www.seki.co.jp/mus/>

SAKA-NO-UE-NO KUMO MUSEUM

tel:089-915-2600

This museum was built to commemorate the novel Saka no ue no kumo (The Clouds on the Hill), written by Shiba Ryotaro. The story takes place during the Meiji era (1868-1912), focusing on three ambitious natives of Matsuyama, brothers Saneyuki and Yoshifuru Akiyama and their friend Masaoka Shiki. A special exhibition explores the Meiji era, transition of Japan to a modern state, focusing on Akiyama Saneyuki. The museum's triangular architecture was designed by Ando Tadao, one of Japan's most famous architects. A 3- minute walk from Okaido tram station.

9:00 -18:30 (admission until 18:00) Closed: Mondays

Admission: Adults ¥400 (*¥320) *Group discount for more than 20 people
Jr. High Sch. Students & Seniors (over 65) ¥200 (*¥160)

* Rental fee for an audio guide is ¥100. (English, Chinese, Korean, Japanese)

<http://www.http://www.sakanouenokumomuseum.jp/>

DOGO GIYAMAN GLASS MUSEUM

tel:089-933-3637

Once glassware was called "Giyaman" from the Portuguese word diamante (diamond) which was used to cut glass. This museum focuses on antique glassware made by Japanese craftsmen. It is located in the Yamanote Garden Place, a 7-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

9:00-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

Closed: Open Everyday

Admission: Adults ¥800, Group discount (15 or over) ¥550, Seniors (65 or over with ID) & Handicapped people ¥700, Junior High & Elementary School Students ¥550

Museum Shop and Café Annex.

<http://www.dogo-yamanote.com/gardenplace/>