

EXHIBITIONS and MUSEUMS, September 2025

EHIME PREFECTURAL ART MUSEUM

tel:089-932-0010

9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30) Closed: Closed: Sept. 2, 8, 16, 22, 29, Oct. 7, 14, 20, 27

Shin-Kan at Horinouchi ・Special Exhibitions

<–Sept.1> Ehime Asahi Television 30th Anniversary;
Shuntaro Tanikawa Picture Books Department Store Exhibition

Admission Ticket	Adults	High School & Collage students	Junior High & Elementary School Students	Adult & Junior High or Elementary school student
Day Ticket (Advance Ticket)	¥1,300 (¥1,100)	¥800 (¥600)	¥600 (¥400)	(¥1,700 only Advance Ticket)

<Sept. 6–Oct. 22> Hiroshi Manabe ~ Looking at Past / Present / Future

Admission Ticket	Adults	High School & Collage students	Junior High & Elementary School Students	Adult & Junior High or Elementary school student
Day Ticket (Group)	¥340 (¥270)	-----	¥230 (¥180)	Free

・Museum Collection Exhibition

< –Sept. 5 > Collection Exhibition

< Sept. 6–Oct. 22> Collection Exhibition III

“Museum Collection”:

Adults ¥330 (¥260), High School & College Students ¥220 (¥170),

Seniors (65 or older) & Junior high, elementary school students or younger are free.

* Disabled persons and their attendants are admitted free.

* With a purchase of the special Exhibition ticket, admission to the Museum Collection Exhibition is free.

*Groups (20 and more) can get advance tickets anytime.

Minami-Kan 9:40-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30)

*Ask for the details. @https://www.ehime-art.jp/

BANSUI-SO

tel:089-921-3711

Bansui-So is a French Neo-Renaissance building built in 1922 as the villa of the Duke Hisamatsu Sadakoto, a descendant of the feudal lord of Matsuyama. It was designated as national important cultural property in 2011. Various events take place on the 1st floor. The luxurious interior decor of the 2nd floor can be viewed for ¥300 (adult). Bansui-so is behind the Courthouse, a 5-minute walk from the Okaido tram station.

9:00-18:00

Closed: Sept. 1, 8, 29, Oct. 6, 20, 27

<-> "Sorokin no mita sakura"

Location photos from this film based on the love between a Russian POW and a Japanese nurse. Adults ¥300, High, Junior-high and elementary school students ¥100. Disabled persons and their attendants ¥100

<Sept. 6, 15:30 ~> Mori Megumi 15th Anniversary ~ Live Tour 2025/ Advance ticket ¥5600

<Sept. 15, 14:00 ~> Harp & Saxophone Autumn Concert/ Advance ticket ¥3000, Day ticket ¥3500

<Sept. 16 - 21> Seal Graving Exhibition ~ Rakutenkai/ Free
*Opening day starts at 13:00. Closing day ends at 16:00

<Sept. 23, 13:00 ~ > Piano Relay Concert/ Free

<Sept. 28, 11:00, 14:00> Sonidori ~ French & Japanese Songs/ ¥2000

<Oct. 4, 14:00 ~> Classical Guitar Club "Rokugen no kai" / Free

<http://www.bansuisou.org/>

MIURART VILLAGE

tel:089- 978-6838

This museum holds various kinds of art exhibits. The permanent collection includes a number of Miurart pieces (porcelain panel painting) as well as contemporary sculptures in the garden gallery. About a 15-minute walk from Uchimiya Iyotetsu bus stop or a 20-minute walk from JR Horie station

Open: Mondays & Tuesdays

<Aug. 24-Oct. 19> Works by Manabe Hiroshi (1928-1996)

~ Opening Up the Future ~

~ Blue Reminiscence ~

MITSUKOSHI

<tel:089-934-8123>

10:00-19:00

Open : Every day

4th Floor ART GALLERY (-16:00 on the last day of exhibition) Admission: Free

<-Sept. 15> Artworks by Talented Artists: Depicting the Beauty of Nature

<Sept. 16-22> Fascinated by the World, Japanese Creative Woodblock Prints Exhibition

<Sept. 23-29> Glassworks in Art Nouveau (late 19th-early 20th century) and Art Deco (1910-1930) Styles

<Sept. 30-Oct. 27> Paintings: Mitsukoshi Special Selection

IYOTETSU TAKASHIMAYA

<tel:089-948-2111>

10:00-19:00

Restaurants 8th, 9th Floor (11:00-21:00)

Santo Santo Café Dining 3rd Floor(10:00-21:00)

Ferris Wheel (10:00-21:00)

6th Floor ART GALLERY Admission: Free (-16:00 on the last day of exhibition)

<-Sept. 2> Modern Woodcarving

<Sept. 3-9> Creative Prince Oe Yasuki Exhibition

<Sept. 10-16> Pottery by Ichikawa Toru ~ The Devil ~

<Sept. 17-23> The 80th Spring Inten Held Anniversary by Artists of Japan Art Academy and Tokyo University of the Arts

<Sept. 24-30> Four Seasons Hanging Scrolls

<https://www.iyotetsu-takashimaya.co.jp/>

THE SHIKI MUSEUM

tel:089-931-5566

Masaoka Shiki (1867-1902) is the father of modern haiku. Here, his lifework and the development of modern Japanese literature are examined. Displays also trace the history of Ehime and Matsuyama from ancient times to the 19th century. On the 3rd floor, there is a replica of "Gudabutsuan", the house where Shiki and his friend Natsume Soseki, a famous novelist, lived for a time. Located in the northern part of Dogo Park, a 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen Station or Dogo Koen tram station.

9:00 -17:00(admission until 16:30) Closed: Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥400 Student (up to high school) Free

*Volunteer English guides available on requests. Call the museum at least 2 days in advance.

*Rental fee for English, Korean or Chinese audio guide is ¥100.

<http://www.sikihaku.lesp.co.jp/information/english/>

SEKI ART GALLERY

tel:089-946-5678

This gallery focuses on Japanese masters of the 20th century including works of the "Nihonga" painters Yokoyama Taikan, Maeda Seison and Kayama Matazo. Also on display are oil paintings by Koiso Ryohei, Léonard Foujita and others. The Rodin Room features sculptures and copperplate prints by François-Auguste-Réne Rodin. As you enter the museum, a member of staff will play an antique disk music box. A 5-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

10:00 - 17:00 Closed: Mondays and Tuesdays

Admission: Adult ¥700, Sr. High, Jr. High & Primary Sch. Students ¥500

<https://www.seki.co.jp/mus/>

SAKA-NO-UE-NO KUMO MUSEUM

tel:089-915-2600

This museum was built to commemorate the novel Saka no ue no kumo (The Clouds on the Hill), written by Shiba Ryotaro. The story takes place during the Meiji era (1868-1912), focusing on three ambitious natives of Matsuyama, brothers Saneyuki and Yoshifuru Akiyama and their friend Masaoka Shiki. A special exhibition explores the Meiji era, transition of Japan to a modern state, focusing on Akiyama Saneyuki. The museum's triangular architecture was designed by Ando Tadao, one of Japan's most famous architects. A 3- minute walk from Okaido tram station.

9:00 -18:30 (admission until 18:00) Closed: Mondays

Admission: Adults ¥400 (*¥320) *Group discount for more than 20 people
Jr. High Sch. Students & Seniors (over 65) ¥200 (*¥160)

* Rental fee for an audio guide is ¥100. (English, Chinese, Korean, Japanese)

<http://www.http://www.sakanouenokumomuseum.jp/>

DOGO GIYAMAN GLASS MUSEUM

tel:089-933-3637

Once glassware was called "Giyaman" from the Portuguese word diamante (diamond) which was used to cut glass. This museum focuses on antique glassware made by Japanese craftsmen. It is located in the Yamanote Garden Place, a 7-minute walk from Dogo Onsen tram station.

9:00-18:00 (admission closes at 17:30) Closed: Open Everyday

Admission: Adults ¥800, Group discount (15 or over) ¥550,
Seniors (65 or over with ID) & Handicapped people ¥700,
Junior High & Elementary School Students ¥550

Museum Shop and Café Annex.

<http://www.dogo-yamanote.com/gardenplace/>