This an intermediate-level class is for Ehime Pref. residents who can read hiragana and katakana and some kanji.

This is an online conversation class where you can learn expressions necessary for daily life and work in Japan.

Free of charge

Everyday Japanese For Foreign Residents

※ This class is not for JLPT preparation.

Course January 7 – March 14, 2026 Each class: 10 sessions

Period ⚠ The class day and time are different for Beginner 1 and Beginner 2

Format Online (Zoom)

Textbook “Irodori Elementary Vol.1 or 2”

Eligibility Foreign nationals residents in Ehime ,12 years older.
Must be able to read hiragana and katakana.
Please aim to attend at least 7 out of 10 classes.

Elementary 1 class

Every Wednesday, 2:30-4:00 p.m.

Recommended for people who have studied a little Japanese before.

You will be able to communicate simply if the other person speaks slowly and clearly — for example, when talking about your town, notifying about absences or being late, expressing your thoughts after eating, or talking at a hospital.

Elementary 2 class

Every Saturday, 7:30-9:00 p.m.

Recommended for people who can already have basic conversations in Japanese.

You will learn to exchange information in a variety of situations — talking about people around you, your country's food, annual events and manners, or listening to information about disasters and local services.

Please applying using the 2D code.
